Navajo Technical University is a Land Grant institution of 1994 and is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

Navajo Technical University's mission is to provide college readiness programs, certificates, associate, baccalaureate, and graduate degrees. Students, faculty, and staff will provide value to the Diné community through research, community engagement, service learning, and activities designed to foster cultural and environmental preservation and sustainable economic development. The University is committed to a high quality, student-oriented, hands-on-learning environment based on the Diné cultural principles: Nitsáhákees, Nahat'á, Iná, Sih Hasin.

NTU's Culinary Arts and Commerical Baking programs have obtained national accreditation under the American Culinary Federation, while NTU's Veterinary Technician program carries accreditation under the American Veterinary Medical Association. NTU's Electrical Engineering and Industrial Engineering programs are ABET accredited.

Admission Process

So you've decided to attend NTU, what's next?

1. Begin by exploring programs NTU has to offer.
2. Consider how you will cover the costs to attend NTU. A semester is usually 16 weeks. How will you afford costs during this time? How about breaks between semesters? How about the time you decide not to attend summer session? Consider these and more.
3. Fill out a FAFSA (Free Application for Financial Student Aid). The sooner the better. Try not to wait till you're admitted. Seek help with NTU beforehand. We are here for you.
4. Fill out enrollment application. Attain all necessary documents, including transcript/s.
5. Spend some time looking for additional funding. Reminder: We can help you at every step
6. So you're admitted. Welcome!
7. Take placement tests to determine best classes for you.
8. Meet with an academic advisor to create a class schedule that is considerate of your time.
9. Attend classes while getting to know NTU. Again, welcome, we are glad you are here.

NTU offers one master's degree, 13 baccalaureate degrees, 20 associate degrees, and 23 certificate programs. The master's and baccalaureate degrees are offered at NTU's Crownpoint campus only.
